

SHIPS RULES

For Property-Vessel identified as: Dragon's lair east (Scorch's Lair)

1. Scorch is Captain and first in Command of this vessel.
2. All hatches to remain locked at all times (in case of pirates).
3. Captain's restroom to remain open and available between 7:30 & 8:30.
4. Restroom rules: Common courtesy - If it's not yours; then do not touch! And do not leave a mess for others such as puddles of water on vanity or deposits in tub or toilet.
5. Common sense and Common law applies including the fact that your actions speak louder than your words.
6. When you bring a controversy to the Captain; you must also bring the remedy otherwise you are merely wasting his time and inviting his wrath for your frivolous claim(s).
7. Walkways, Rooms, Hallways and Driveways to remain safe and clear at all times.
8. This is a contracting vessel maintaining typical daytime hours. Interference with these operations will not be tolerated including interference with Captain's sleep schedule roughly between the hours of 23:00 & 9:00.
9. Captain has first priority to all utilities including communications bandwidth.
10. Guests must be announced to the Captain or they may be trespassers.
11. All trash to be deposited in proper receptacles and receptacles to be emptied as needed.
12. No tobacco smoking on board this Vessel. (Reasonable use of Cannabis is acceptable.)
13. Dirty dishes to be placed in dishwasher and dishwasher to be operated when properly loaded to capacity. (Contact Captain for procedures.)
14. Clean dishes to be stowed after dishwasher completes cycle.
15. Pots and Pans to be immediately cleaned and stowed after each use.
16. Used dishes are not to be abandoned on counters, tables, or in living quarters.
17. Public areas and living quarters to be maintained in a presentable, clean and safe condition. Including work surfaces such as counters, tables and appliances.
18. Those not paying their fare shall give of their time (minimum of 3 hours per week) towards self-improvement including study of Law, Alternative energy systems, Survival strategies, Self governance, Wage earning skills and etcetera.
19. Those not paying their fare or giving of their time, may be considered 'debtors' accumulating a debt to the Captain.
20. Personal responsibility regarding drug use such as tobacco, caffeine, alcohol and cannabis: Captain does exercise and defend inherent rights including personal use of such substances. But he will not be your enabler for your self destruction of your own vessel (body). And if you choose to do these things to point of actually interfering with the Captain, Crew, Passenger or impairing the Operations of his vessel; then you may be evicted for your interference and/or loss of self control of your own vessel.
21. Captain is providing a substantial benefit and expects you to 'pay it forward' to others in need in the future.
22. Violators are subject to the Captain's wrath, including Verbal Challenges, Loss of Privileges, Cessation of one or more Vessel functions, Arrest of Vessel and Ejection-Eviction from the Vessel.

23. If you disagree with the rules of this vessel; you are free to leave.

*"Crew" - Those who substantively contribute to the health and operations of this Vessel and are subject of a contract – obligation to the Captain. IE: Your room is 'free' but you must contribute in some way and endeavor in self-improvement.

"Passengers" – Those who PAY for their position on this vessel but do NOT contribute to the health and operations of this Vessel and are at the very BOTTOM of the chain of command.

"Stowaways" or "Squatters" – Those who do NOT pay or contribute and have no right to be on the vessel at all therefor subject to ejection without reason or notice.
